“A DATE WHICH WILL LIVE IN INFAMY”

FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT

Experience the trip of a lifetime in the South Pacific. Begin your World War II tour at the U.S. naval base in Honolulu, Pearl Harbor. You’ll make your way across the Pacific to Saipan, where you will walk the historic beaches our soldiers stormed. Travelers will explore the bomb magazine used to supply the planes that attacked Guam on December 8, 1941, and hear highlighted aspects of battle from the museum’s collection. Take a private aircraft to the nearby island of Tinian to embark on a tour of the iconic North Field.

Board a short flight to Guam to visit Asan and Agat landing beaches, where the U.S. Marines and the Army’s 77th infantry met stiff Japanese resistance. While visiting Asan Bay Overlook, pay homage to the memorial wall containing the names of men who fought with extreme bravery on the front lines, and the names of civilians. Don’t miss your chance to see Iwo Jima, which is only open to visitors once per year, until the last soldier of this battle passes. For the 74th Commemoration, veterans will be in attendance for a prestigious reunion of honor. Upon arrival, guests may walk to the top of Mt. Suribachi, where the iconic flag-raising photo was taken. The mountain’s name comes from its shape, resembling a suribachi or “grinding bowl.” Get ready to brush up on your history!

TRAVEL TRIVIA | OF THE EIGHT BATTLESHIPS TARGETED DURING THE ATTACK, ALL BUT TWO WERE EVENTUALLY REPAIRED AND RETURNED TO THE U.S. NAVY’S FLEET.

FLY AROUND THE WORLD

This is the trip that dreams are made of! Couldn’t think of what destination to cross off first? Well, this private jet expedition covers it all! Experience the wonders of the world in this extraordinary 24-day, bucket list checking trip, starting at historic Machu Picchu. This lost city of the Incas is the first of many historic sites you’ll be visiting. Enjoy breathtaking views along the historic beaches of Easter Island. The island’s claim to fame is an array of almost 900 giant stone figures that date back many centuries. While in Samoa, get a taste of Polynesian culture at a festive Fia Fia dinner and show. Snorkel The Great Barrier Reef among a vibrant collection of coral and tropical fish. Travelers also have the option to venture into the Daintree Rainforest, one of Australia’s last truly wild areas.

Explore the World Heritage site of Angkor, including the Bayon, the overgrown remains of Ta Prohm and the majestic Angkor Wat. In the former capital of Agra, see one of the world’s greatest architectural gems, the Taj Mahal. The famous ivory-white marble monument was commissioned in 1632 by emperor Shah Jahan to house the tomb of his favorite wife. Search for the Big Five (lions, leopards, Cape buffalo, elephants, and rhinos) on one of the many land reserves in Tanzania. Being the 13th largest country in Africa, Tanzania has more land devoted to game reserves than any other country. Discover Petra, which was half-built and half-carved into red sandstone cliffs more than 2,000 years ago. Experience the imperial city of Marrakech, where you will stroll through the winding pathways of the Medina, and the lush botanical garden, Jardin Majorelle. It’s time to pick up the phone.
