A World Apart

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It should be about more than the joy of seeing new places and meeting new people. Our world evolves at a rapid pace, but at its core are universal values that are important to us all—values like the safety and security of our families, the enduring power of cultural heritage, and the challenges of personal and professional growth.

That’s why we design itineraries that allow you to craft an individual travel experience. Free time means something different to every traveler. You may like to linger in a cozy café or stay on the go. That’s why we design itineraries that allow you to craft an individual travel experience. A World Apart

The story of travel involves more than a ticket and a passport. It involves the simple pleasures of slowing down, appreciating the beauty of a setting, and fully immersing yourself in your surroundings. The Travel Directors with Abercrombie & Kent provide a direct connection to the sites you visit, always delivering the unexpected with a smile.

Traveling in a small group makes you feel connected to your fellow travelers. Being part of an intimate, like-minded group allows you to immerse yourself comfortably in your surroundings. Your Travel Director is there to ensure you make the most of your experience, sharing behind-the-scenes anecdotes and introducing you to the best local spots. This means it’s easier to explore and discover what you might not have thought possible.

The other important characters in this story are the guides you meet along the way—the historians who take you on a journey through the ages and the connoisseurs who help you navigate the culinary scene. Each is well-versed in their field, bringing depth and context to your experience.

With these specialists at your side, become intimately engaged in every aspect of your journey. Your personal travel story begins with our experts who are ready to take you on an adventure that’s truly unforgettable.

In Transit

Tonight, gather for a special Welcome Reception.

Spend the afternoon pursuing your own itinerary in Prague, a magnificent city spread across both banks of the Vltava River. In the Old Town, you’ll find charming narrow streets, medieval houses, and exquisite architecture. The Wenceslas Square—to name just one—is a vibrant hub for cafes, bars, and restaurants. Stroll through the Old Town and listen to historical accounts. Don’t miss Prague’s Jewish Quarter, a poignant reminder of the city’s rich history. Tour the Old-New Synagogue and explore the Jewish Museum, which houses a wealth of artifacts and provides fascinating insight into Jewish history.

The artistic and cultural scene is equally vibrant. Be sure to visit the Prague National Museum, which houses a vast collection of medieval art, religious artifacts, and natural history exhibits. Another must-see is the St. Vitus Cathedral, the centerpiece of Prague Castle, and the Prague National Gallery, which boasts an impressive collection of Czech and European art. This afternoon, enjoy a walking tour of the Old Town, where you’ll find a blend of Gothic, Baroque, and Renaissance architecture.

Dinner today is included at the hotel. Please refer to the hotel information page for details.

Day 2

Enjoy a full-day tour of the most fascinating sights and attractions in Prague. First, visit the Prague Castle complex, one of the largest bastions of medieval architecture in the world. Take in the grandeur of the St. Vitus Cathedral, the pride of Prague Castle, and the adjacent Jesuit College. Then, explore the Castle’s many palaces, enjoying a glimpse into the lives of the Czech monarchs who once resided here. The ornate courtyards, sumptuous chambers, and dizzying royal collections offer a fascinating glimpse into the world of royalty.

Afternoon Free Time in Prague.

Day 3

Discover the Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site known for its stunning scenery and rich cultural heritage. Set within the quarter’s synagogues, the exhibits house everything from arms and musical instruments from the past to contemporary Jewish life. The exhibits provide an intimate glimpse into Czech Jewish life, from the time of the expulsion to the present day.

Afternoon Free Time in Melk.

Day 4

This morning, head to the gently rolling hills of Wachau, an area of gentle beauty famous for its vineyards and historic castles. Visit Melk Abbey, situated on a terrace overlooking the Danube River. This Benedictine abbey, a marvel of Gothic architecture, is home to the gilded copper Verdun Altar. Explore the abbey’s interior and enjoy stunning views of the Wachau Valley region from its terrace.

This afternoon, enjoy sailing through the Wachau Valley, one of the world’s most beautiful wine regions. The riverbanks boasts charming villages clustered along the banks, each with its own unique character and charm. This evening, join your fellow travelers for a special Welcome Reception.

Day 5

This morning, visit the city of Krems, founded in the 12th century and home to a number of important historical sites. Explore the town’s charming alleyways and visit the Kesermayer Carousel, a spectacular wooden merry-go-round that dates back to 1775. In the afternoon, enjoy a walking tour of Krems during which you’ll discover the town’s rich history and culture. This evening, enjoy a special Welcome Reception.

Day 6

Visit the charming riverside town of Dürnstein, known for its medieval architecture and charming atmosphere. Take a short hike up to Stiftskirche, known for its blue tower. This afternoon, enjoy a cruise through the Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The Wachau Valley is renowned for its stunning scenery, historic castles, and vineyards. Take in the breathtaking views of the Wachau Valley region as you sail through the valley.

This evening, enjoy a special Welcome Reception.

Day 7

This morning, visit the city of Krems, founded in the 12th century and home to a number of important historical sites. Explore the town’s charming alleyways and visit the Kesermayer Carousel, a spectacular wooden merry-go-round that dates back to 1775. In the afternoon, enjoy a walking tour of Krems during which you’ll discover the town’s rich history and culture. This evening, enjoy a special Welcome Reception.

Day 8

Today, embark your first-class ship and kick off your Danube River cruise with a scenic sail. Settle into your cabin and enjoy the views from the top deck as you cruise along the river. There’s plenty to see and do on board, from workshops and lectures to wine tastings and riverbank excursions.

Day 9

Visit the town of Passau, known as the “Gateway to the Balkans.” This charming town is located at the confluence of the Danube, Ilz and Inn rivers, and is home to an impressive array of architectural treasures, including the historic St. Stephen’s Cathedral and the Baroque Stiftskirche.
